

Ian Fullagar

Sports Lawyer

Contact

Lex Sportiva
PO Box 1059
Hampton North VIC 3188

M: 0428 082 087

E: lexsportiva@icloud.com

Ian Fullagar is a Sports Lawyer and has over 30 years' experience in legal practice having been admitted to practice in 1989. Ian has a combined Bachelor degree in Arts and Law, and a Master of Law degree.

Having forged a successful career after 20 years as a partner in Melbourne firms, Ian has very broad corporate and commercial legal experience and specialist expertise in sports law and public law.

Ian has held many positions on government, commercial and not-for-profit boards both as a director and as company secretary. He has also lectured at a number of universities in various sports law and sports governance related subjects.

Ian is a founding member of the Australian and New Zealand Sports Law Association (ANZSLA) and was National Secretary from 1990-1997. He is now a life member of ANZSLA and is also a Vincent Fairfax Fellow.

Areas of Legal Experience

Corporate and Commercial

Corporate Governance including company secretarial and compliance

Corporations Act and Associations Incorporation Acts

Commercial agreements

Intellectual property

Trusts and Equity

Sports Law

Charity Law

Public Law including Regulatory Law

Risk management

Qualifications & Memberships

Bachelors of Arts & Law 1988, University of Tasmania

Master of Law 1996, University of Melbourne

Member of Law Institute of Victoria

Life Member of the Australian & New Zealand Sports Law Association

Member Association of Corporate Counsel, Australia

Fellow of the Governance Institute of Australia

Member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors

