Minister for Sport

It is with great pleasure I announce the opening of round four of the Her Sport Her Way Grant Program. A key initiative of the Her Sport Her Way strategy aims to build a stronger NSW sport sector where women and girls are valued, recognised, and have equal choices and opportunities to lead and participate.

The grant program will provide more than $2.5 million in funding over four years to assist State Sporting Organisations to grow their sports for women and girls, on and off the field.

The program provides a platform to drive powerful change, explore and test new ideas and ways of doing things to reduce barriers to participation, improve leadership opportunities and promote safe and inclusive sport experiences.

Continual insights and data on girls' mental health and participation in sport highlights the need for innovative solutions to encourage adolescent girls to stay in sport and this remains a focus of this funding round.

The program provides opportunities to explore innovative approaches to engage and encourage adolescent girls' participation, that address emerging barriers and improve retention of this age group, to ensure the long-term benefits from participating in team sport is attained.

Grants from $10,000 - $50,000 are available for eligible organisations and successful organisations will be supported with resources for project planning and evaluation.

I encourage all eligible State Sporting Organisations to read these guidelines, make use of the resources when preparing your application and submit an application by 1pm, Wednesday 16 November 2022.

Introduction

These Guidelines outline key objectives, eligibility criteria, assessment criteria, assessment process and timeframes for the Her Sport Her Way Grant Program.

Applicants must read this document before filling out an application.

About the Her Sport Her Way Program

Her Sport Her Way (2019-2023) is a four-year strategy that aims to build a stronger NSW sport sector where women and girls are valued, recognised, and have equal choices and opportunities to lead and participate.

It provides a clear role for the NSW Government to work with the sector and new partners in innovative ways to shape the future of women's sport.

The Her Sport Her Way Grant Program (the Program) is a key initiative under this strategy and supports Her Sport Her Way annual action plans, sports participation plans and Office of Sport Strategic Plan 20202-2024.

It provides support to NSW State Sporting Organisations (Organisations) to develop and deliver new initiatives to increase participation of women and girls in sport, on and off the field, and build cultures of diversity and inclusion. This year the Program continues to have a particular focus on initiatives that target adolescent girls.

Program objectives

The Program aims to increase opportunities for women and girls, on and off the field, throughout NSW. The key objectives of the Program are to:

- Increase the number of women and girls playing sport

- Improve the retention of adolescent girls
- Increase the number of women and adolescent girls in leadership positions both on and off the field
- Improve gender inclusive sporting cultures and environments.

Applicants may apply for more than one project, or multiple locations however the maximum available to any one Organisation is $50,000.

The amount requested should reflect the scale and reach of the project and the Organisation's contribution to the project.

The Office of Sport reserves the right to recommend part-funding of projects where there is insufficient funding available for the whole project or where only a component of the project is ineligible. Applicants should identify whether their project may not proceed if the full grant amount requested is not approved.
