

Name: _____

EXAMINATION FOR REGISTRATION
REFEREE / JUDGE / TIMEKEEPER

Please circle the most correct answer for each question below

REGISTRATION PROCESS QUESTION

A referee is required to have a current first aid certificate

- a. True
- b. False

A judge or timekeeper must have completed a CPR course in the last 3 years

- a. True
- b. False

Any official wishing to be registered under the Combat Sports Act 2013 must supply 100 points of Certified ID

- a. True
- b. False

Any official wishing to register under the Combat Sports Act 2013 must supply a statement of skills, knowledge and experience from an approved authority

- a. True
- b. False

All registered officials must comply with the Combat Sports Authority Code of Conduct and Ethics

- a. True
- b. False

CONDUCT OF THE WEIGH-IN AND CONTEST

A medical practitioner is required to be present at any permitted combat sport contest?

- c. True
- d. False

Who may compete on a permitted amateur combat sport contest?

- a. Only combatants registered as an amateur combatant (in the sport / discipline to be contested) with the CSA and listed on the approved fight card
- b. Any registered combatant
- c. Anyone who has been training in a gym
- d. Combatants approved by the promoter

Who may compete on a permitted professional combat sport contest?

- a. Any registered combatant
- b. Anyone who is being paid
- c. Only combatants registered as a professional combatant (in the sport / discipline to be contested) with the CSA and listed on the approved fight card
- d. Combatants approved by the promoter

Who has the authority to stop a combat sport contest?

- a. The medical practitioner in attendance
- b. The combat sports inspector (CSI) in attendance
- c. The referee of the contest
- d. All of the above

A medical practitioner can determine that a combatant is not fit to fight at the pre-contest medical examination

- a. True
- b. False

The Combat Sports Authority can issue fines for breaches of the Act and Regulations

- a. True
- b. False

APPOINTMENTS

Who appoints the officials at an amateur Combat Sport Contest?

- a. The Approved Amateur Body
- b. The Promoter
- c. The Combat Sports Authority
- d. The referee

Who appoints the officials at a Professional Combat Sport Contest?

- a. The Approved Amateur Body
- b. The Promoter
- c. The Combat Sports Authority
- d. The referee

The fees for the officials at a permitted Professional contest in NSW are set by the CSA and are paid by

- a. The CSA
- b. The Promoter
- c. The Combat Sports Inspector (CSI)
- d. The Combatant

Payment of the fees for Officials at a Professional contest must be made

- a. At the end of the show
- b. Before the commencement of the first professional contest
- c. When the ticket takings have been collected
- d. At the time of the permit application

An official appointed by the CSA at a Professional combat sport contest must sign to acknowledge they have received the correct payment

- a. True
- b. False